MIKE'S MAILBAG

Hi folks!

We've had a marvellous response to our request for you to tell us what you like best about my little mag – even my Dad has been moved out of his armchair to help us count up. We'll tell you what you liked best in our next issue. In the meantime, keep those letters coming in – they're ACE! Here's just a small selection:

Dear Mike,
I want to know if anyone would lend me Volume 2 of the Dragon Lance series. Please enclose S.A.E.
Nick Parr, 5 North Hermitage, Belle Vue, Shrewsbury.

Dear Mike,
A boy went to the doctor and said I can't go to sleep. The doctor said, did you try counting? The boy said yes, I counted to 1,000, 5,000, 25,000. The doctor said, did you fall asleep? The boy said, no it was time to wake up.

What's Dracula's favourite T.V. programme?
Horronation Street.

The poster you gave me was great. It was of a Kitten and my cat Patchie couldn't stop staring at it!
Yours cattishly,
Eyad Hanesh (aged 11), 53A Gladstone Road, Birmingham B11 1PL.

Dear MIKE,
I'm a member of Jeans Scheme and I think your comic's brilliant. Here's a riddle:
Q: What do you get if you cross a homing pigeon and a woodpecker?
A: A bird that not only delivers messages but also knocks on the door.

Caroline Shorrock, 6 West Moss Lane, Ballam, Lytham St. Annes FY8 4NH.

Dear MIKE,
Here are some hints on getting extra pocket money: do odd jobs like washing cars, hold a disco, be a newspaper deliverer, take dogs for walks.
Carl Grimshaw, 25 Oxford Road, Atherton, Manchester M29 9QD.

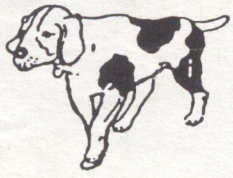
Dear MIKE,
I've just joined and I think your mags are very good indeed.
Q: Why did the one handed chicken cross the road?
A: To get to the second hand shop!

P. A. Dudgeon, 41 Longfleet Road, Poole, Dorset BH15 2HW.

MIKE'S MAG

MIKE's mag is really ace
It will put a big smile on your face.
Competitions, drawing classes and
pen pals galore,
And you can bet your bottom dollar
that there's more, more, more.
Don't be shy, be quite sneeky,
Then if you are, take a little peeky.

Dear MIKE,
I saw your letters about names of pets. I have four goldfish called Tico, Fred, Percy and Amber. One rabbit called Tojo. One dog called Susie and a cat called Lickity, Lackity, Lack – a funny name but that's what my sister said when she first saw it.
I have just joined the Jeans Scheme and I think it's ACE.
Elizabeth Needham (13), 40 Brodclyn Ave., Flixton, Manchester M31 3PC.



Dear MIKE,
I have been in the Jeans Scheme since December 1984 and have enjoyed your magazines. I thought you would like a joke to cheer you up.

Q: What do you get when a piano falls down a mine?
A: A Flat Miner!

Sharon Searle (14), 108 Speedwell Cres., Eggbuckland, Plymouth PL6 5TH.

Dear MIKE,
Here's a joke – I must add, it's very appropriate!
"Doctor, doctor, I feel like a pound note!"
"Well go shopping, the change will do you good!"

Natalie Hopkins, 4 The Plain, Whiteshill, Stroud GL6 6AA.

Dear MIKE,
I earn extra money by doing jobs for my Mum and also the shopping. When we hire a car, my Dad lets me wash the car for 50p. This is the first time I have written to you – I only joined on November 1, 1985.
Paul Henry, 13 Striding Edge, Blackfell, Washington, Tyne and Wear.

Dear MIKE,
My name is Adam and in June 1985 I had my left leg in traction because I have a disability called Haemophilia which means I have to have a needle put into me every other day which stops me from getting bleeds into my ankles, knees and elbows. But I treat it as best I can. It doesn't stop me having fun because I have a great mum who understands – she is brill. I go to a fab school in Hampshire called Lord Mayor Treloar College which is for children with Haemophilia, Muscular Distrophy, Spina Bifida, Cerebral Pulsey. I'm in a house called Gaston House in the first form 1B, after school you go to tea and then at 4.25 p.m. you go to prep which is just extra work. Then after you can go to the house and get into casual clothes. At 5.30 p.m. there is swimming with one of the teachers from Monday to Friday, then at 7.00 p.m. it is supper time – in other words 'nosh'! Then you go back to the house to get ready for bed and between 7.30 p.m. and 8.30 p.m. you can watch telly. Could I please say a big HELLO to all my friends at Lord Mayor Treloar College!

Adam 'Top Cat' Carnochan (11½), 6, Hallam Court, Ilkeston, Derby.

Dear MIKE,
I joined your Scheme in August and I find it most interesting. I like all the pages of pen-pals and the stories, puzzles, jokes, competitions. . . I like pop music and posters, so could you put in a pop poster or beauty tips. I am sure that any other teenager would like that sort of thing. I see that you like milkshakes. Here is one for you to make at home:

Chocolate Milkshake – makes 3.

1 packet of chocolate instant whip powder.
1½ pints of milk.

Place 2 tablespoons of instant whip in each glass and ½ pint of milk.
Whisk for 5 minutes and chill. It's delicious. . .

Sarah PERRY (12), 18 Greton Street, Walton, LIVERPOOL L4 5TR.

Dear MIKE,
Seen in the window of a dry cleaner's:
"We'll clean for you, We'll Press for You, We'll even dye for you!"

Melanie Jakubiak (10), 15 Gedney Ave., St. Ann's, Nottingham.

WRITE TO TSB's MIKE, SCHOOL GARDENS, SHREWSBURY SY1 2AJ.

Dear Mike,
I have three pets. One of them is a slug called Sam. I keep it in a jewellery box with water, grass and a lettuce leaf. I think that it is a baby slug as it is very small. As well as Sam, I have a dog called Lady and a wild rabbit called Tiddles.
Yours sluggishly,
Heather Wilson, 75 Southern Road, Sale, Cheshire M33 1HG.

Dear Mike,
I read in your September issue of MIKE on the stop press page about Karen Louise Atkinson. She said she has 13 pets. Well, listen to this. I have got: 4 ducks, 6 chickens, 20 goldfish, 1 dog, 1 cat, 1 gerbil, 1 field mouse and 2 budgies, 100 stick insects and I also look after 1 hamster and 1 parrot. If anybody has more than I have, please let me know.
Simon Murray, 6 Widford Hill, Windford, Nr. Ware, Herts. SG12 8SW.

MIKE'S CLUB CORNER

Dear Mike,
I'm interested in stamps, and thought it would be good for several stamp collectors to swap stamps and information. If people are interested I will start a club and put collectors in touch with each other.
If you are interested write to:
Joanne Morley, St. Lawrence, Horsemans Green, Nr. Whitchurch, Shropshire SY13 3DY. (Please enclose a S.A.E.)

MYSTERY PUZZLE

All the words in the list can be found in the square by simply searching them out, reading in straight lines. Those straight lines can go in any direction: up, down, backwards, forwards or diagonally.
When you've found all the words you will have seven letters left over which, when re-arranged form the name of a building.

Dear MIKE,
Me and my friend really enjoyed your last issue of MIKE magazine. I who am already aware it is good enjoyed it – my friend, who isn't in the bank, liked it so much she is going to join.
As we were reading through your brilliant magazine we found it a shame there wasn't a section on tongue-twisters. So me and my friend spent exactly a month writing this super book – 40 tongue-twisters. Here's a few:

"Yellow lorry, red lorry!"
"I saw a ship in sight".
"Simon stuck with sticky Sellotape!"
"Bossy Betty bottled boastfully!"

Donna Hermitage and Joanne Bennison, 12 Denbigh Close, Leyland, Lancashire PR5 2YY.

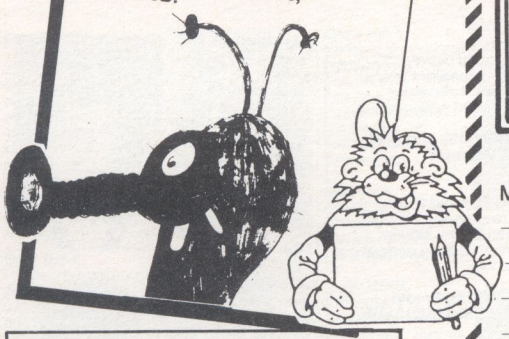
PENPAL COUPON

Dear Mike,
Here are some pictures of some of the cartoon characters in your magazine. There is also one of you. One of them we have is called Yibble Yabble because we didn't know what he was called. We took a lot of time drawing and colouring them, so you and your cartoon friends had better like them.
Angela Collins, 9 Harewood Crescent, Louth, Lincs, LNU 0JD.



Q: What do frogs drink?
A: Croakacola.

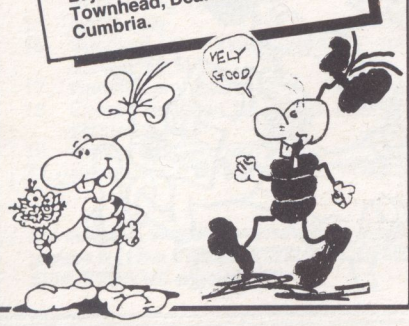
Dear MIKE,
I don't think we see enough of Mr. Blirriant so I'm sending you my picture of him.

Bryan White (9), Warnwood Townhead, Dearham, Maryport, Cumbria.



UP THE GARDEN PATH

The lawn it needs mowing,
The seeds, they need sowing,
The rubbish is stacked,
On slabs that are cracked,
The flower-beds need weeding,
The tomatoes need feeding,
The shed walls are bending,
And the roof, it needs mending,
The fence has blown down,
The bindweed has wound
Spreading out of control,
Round the washing-line pole.

Kevin Purdom, 7 Eynsham Close, Woodley, Reading, Berks.

ALL ALONE

They threw me out in the snow,
But I was not to know,
They did not want me back,
Just because I was black.

They wanted a cute ginger cat,
Whom they could call Mollypat,
But now I just have to roam,
In danger and all alone.

A. Matthews, 9 Byron Avenue, Droylsden, Manchester M35 6QB.

MAGIC GLASSES

When I looked through magic glasses,
I saw flying classes,
Fish sewing,
Money beetles towing,
Dogs cuddling a moon,
While a cat was making a spoon,
A newspaper carrying a house,
While an ant was carrying a mouse,
Chalk screeching,
Blackboards teaching,
That's what I saw through the MAGIC GLASSES.

Victoria Howd (12), Newcastle.

LOVEABLE SCRUFFY

I have a little rabbit,
Scruffy is his name,
He's always eating carrots,
He's also very tame.

Down by the garden wall,
You'll find his wooden hutch,
And although he is quite small,
He loves it very much.

His coat is black and white,
His eyes are very dark,
He's got a fluffy tail,
His teeth are very sharp.

I know I've called him Scruffy,
I wish I hadn't now,
He's such a bonny bunny,
Come on Scruffy, take a bow.

Heather Ward, 32 Mount Pleasant, Adlington, Chorley, Lancs.

Dear Mike,
I made a picture for you to put in MIKE Comic. Please miss out the names and I've got a story for it. Please send me a comic with a Story Writer page in and put my computer bike in too.

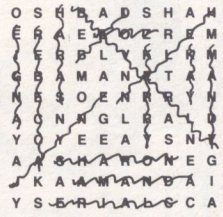
SOLUTION TO THE P.2 PUZZLE



RAVENOUS RODNEY'S RECIPE CORNER

Dear Rodney,
I have a super delicious recipe I must share with you. It is called:–

GRANDMA'S STICK JAW TOFFEE

It is really scrummy. Here is the recipe.

Ingredients
6 oz. (175 g) butter
1 small (7 oz./200 g) tin Condensed Milk
8 oz. (225 g) soft brown sugar
8 oz. (225 g) golden syrup

Method
1. Melt the butter in a large saucepan.
2. Add the sugar and syrup and heat gently, to dissolve the sugar. (Hint: Heat the spoon before getting the syrup on it. The syrup should then slide off the spoon instead of sticking).
3. Stir until it boils, then add condensed milk.
4. Boil steadily for about 20 minutes, stirring all the time with a wooden spoon.
5. It will then thicken and go a medium 'oak' colour.

To test for Readiness
Drop a small amount into a saucer of cold water. It should form a soft round ball.
Pour quickly into a greased tin 11 × 7 ins. (28 × 18 cm).
Leave to set and get cold. Then break it into pieces and store in a tin.
Makes about 1¾ lbs. (675 g).
Hope you enjoy it!!

Love from Dawn Schofield, 25B Butchill Avenue, Ecclesfield, Sheffield S5 9DH.

P.S. Don't forget to clean your teeth after eating it!!
Rodney: Clean 'em? I've licked off every bit!!
